

CENTRE FOR FEDERAL STUDIES

JAMIA HAMDARD

ADMISSION ANNOUNCEMENT 2011-12

Applications are invited for admission to M.Phil. course in Federal Studies

Eligibility: Candidate holding master degree in Social Sciences particularly in Political Science Public Administration, Sociology, Economics etc with minimum 55% marks are eligible for admission to M. Phil course.

Duration of the Course: Duration of the course is one year but a candidate may be granted extension of another one year in case dissertation is not completed within the specified time of one year.

Award of the Degree: M. Phil degree awarded in Federal Studies. However, the subject of a candidate at master's level is also mentioned in the degree within bracket for the convenience of the candidates.

Application: Interested candidates may submit written application indicating their eligibility and intent for pursuing M.Phil course in Federal Studies along with photo copies of the marks sheet to the office of the Centre for Federal Studies. The candidates shall have to pay the requisite fee once their request is considered.

Last date for submission of application is August 16, 2011.

For further information contact the Centre (Tel. 26059688 Extn. 5889) and visit the Centre's website www.cfsindia.org.in